

Jordan Cattle Auction
San Saba
February 27, 2010

Receipts totaled 2874 head with buyers from all over Texas along with some from New Mexico, Arizona, Oklahoma and Kentucky. The market was very active and demand strong on over 600 pairs selling in a range from $1100 up to $1475. The bred cows were in good demand with 400 head on hand with the better flesh and baby tooth (5 yrs or younger) longbreds selling from $900 up to $1220 on one fancy set of 40 second calf Angus cows. The medium flesh longbred cows and shorter bred cows went from $800 up to $950. Over 600 bred heifers were marketed with the better fleshier longbreds ranging from $900 up to $1120 with one set of registered Angus longbred heifers bringing $1425. The good quality bred heifers that had less eye appeal (less flesh due to the weather conditions that have occurred this winter) brought from $800 up to $925. More than 500 open heifers sold in good demand with the bigger heifers that were ready to breed selling from $725 up to $900. The lighter younger open heifers were ranging from $535 up to $700. The next replacement female sale will be Thursday, March 18, 2010 at 11:00am in San Saba.
